

Oshkosh Corporation named one of the World's Most Admired Companies by FORTUNE

Feb 23, 2022 12:12 PM

OSHKOSH, Wis.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Oshkosh Corporation (NYSE: OSK), a leading innovator of mission-critical vehicles and essential equipment, announced today that it has been named one of the 2022 World's Most Admired Companies by FORTUNE. Ranked by industry peers, Oshkosh Corporation is one of 640 companies to earn this designation and is ranked top three in its category. This is the fourth time that the Company has received this award.

"It's an honor to be included on FORTUNE's World's Most Admired Companies list," said John Pfeifer, Oshkosh Corporation President and Chief Executive Officer. "We're able to deliver innovative solutions for our customers because we live our core values and People First culture every day. Being included on this global list is a testament to that commitment."

At Oshkosh Corporation, we're pioneering innovations in our machines across electrification, autonomy, active safety, mobility, advanced analytics and intelligent products. We're making our vehicles and equipment safer, more efficient and more sustainable because we're an exceptional manufacturer and a purpose-built innovator.

In addition to being named one of FORTUNE's World's Most Admired Companies, Oshkosh Corporation has also been named one of America's Most Responsible Companies by Newsweek, one of the World's Most Ethical Companies by Ethisphere and is listed on the Dow Jones Sustainability World Index.

Fortune ranks global companies in 52 industries and asks executives, directors and analysts from these enterprises to provide rankings in their own industry on nine criteria, from investment value and quality of management and products to social responsibility and ability to attract talent.

Forward Looking Statements

This news release contains statements that the Company believes to be “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements other than statements of historical fact, including, without limitation, statements regarding the Company’s future financial position, business strategy, targets, projected sales, costs, earnings, capital expenditures, debt levels and cash flows, and plans and objectives of management for future operations, are forward-looking statements. When used in this news release, words such as “may,” “will,” “expect,” “intend,” “estimate,” “anticipate,” “believe,” “should,” “project” or “plan” or the negative thereof or variations thereon or similar terminology are generally intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors, some of which are beyond the Company’s control, which could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. These factors include the overall impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the Company’s business, results of operations and financial condition; the duration and severity of the COVID-19 pandemic; actions that may be taken by governmental authorities and others to address or otherwise mitigate the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic; the negative impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic on global economies and the Company’s customers, suppliers and employees; and the cyclical nature of the Company’s Access Equipment, Commercial and Fire & Emergency markets, which are particularly impacted by the strength of U.S. and European economies and construction seasons.
