

Oshkosh Corporation Named to 2019 IDG CIO 100 List

May 01, 2019 12:24 PM

OSHKOSH, Wis.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Oshkosh Corporation (NYSE:OSK), a leading designer and manufacturer of specialty vehicles, vehicle bodies and access equipment, today announced it has been named as a recipient of the 2019 IDG CIO 100 award. This annual awards program highlights organizations around the world that drive information technology excellence both operationally and strategically.

The annual CIO 100 Awards celebrate 100 organizations and the teams within them that are using IT in innovative ways to deliver business value, whether by creating competitive advantage, optimizing business processes, enabling growth or improving relationships with customers. Recipients are selected through a three-step process. First, companies fill out an online application form detailing innovative IT and business initiatives. Next, a team of external judges (many of them former CIOs) reviews the applications in depth, looking for leading-edge IT practices and measurable results. Finally, CIO editors review the judges' recommendations and select the final 100.

“On behalf of our global information technology organization, we are honored to receive this award which showcases our drive to continually improve and challenge the way we approach information technology operations and strategy to add value for the business,” said Anupam Khare, Oshkosh Corporation Senior Vice President and Chief Information Officer. “This achievement is a result of the innovative spirit of our team who continue to look for new ways to challenge the status quo and transform the business each day.”

“Across the business landscape, companies everywhere recognize the vital role that an innovative, value-driven approach to information technology plays in their success,” said Maryfran Johnson, IDG’s Executive Director of CIO Programs. “This year’s CIO 100 winning companies are inspiring examples of how IT leadership, business collaboration and digital transformation will drive future growth.”

Executives from the winning companies will be recognized at The CIO 100 Symposium & Awards Ceremony, to be held Wednesday evening, August 21, at the Broadmoor Resort in Colorado Springs, Colorado.
