Oshkosh Defense also announced that TACOM placed an order for 1,065 FMTV vehicles at a value of $260.1 million under Order Year 8.

“The highly successful FMTV A1P2 program is a prime example of Oshkosh partnering with the U.S. Army to deliver high quality vehicles while meeting cost, performance, and schedule objectives,” said Pat Williams, Oshkosh Defense Vice President and General Manager of Army and Marine Corps programs. “We are pleased to continue our service to the U.S. Army in delivering the A1P2 requirements to the U.S. Army and its NATO and International allies.”

Oshkosh Defense was first awarded the FMTV contract by the U.S. Army in 2009 and, to date, has delivered more than 35,700 FMTV trucks and trailers.
