"We are honored to receive this prestigious award from Forrester," said Anupam Khare, senior vice president and chief information officer for Oshkosh Corporation. "Oshkosh has prioritized digital transformation and the building of a tech stack that supports the needs of our internal and external customers, as well as our supply chain partners to deliver an exceptional customer experience."

As part of the company's digital transformation, Oshkosh has expanded and optimized its core technology capabilities, while improving its cybersecurity posture. Its tech strategy leverages modern platforms and practices to grow and transform the organization's businesses while building out a tech partner ecosystem to help implement solutions with agility.

"Agility is crucial in today's business environment," said Khare. "To date, our tech strategy has helped automate over 100,000 annual hours of work and enable tangible business results."

"The Forrester Technology Strategy Impact Award winner demonstrates a laser focus on customer and business outcomes," said Sharyn Leaver, chief research officer at Forrester. "In successfully transforming their technology strategies and capabilities, Oshkosh Corporation will be able to adapt to a fast-changing tech landscape and accelerate growth in a disruptive time."

Oshkosh Corporation was named the winner of this award at Forrester's Technology & Innovation North America Event in Austin, Texas.

Forward Looking Statements

This news release contains statements that the Company believes to be “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements other than statements of historical fact, including, without limitation, statements regarding the Company’s future financial position, business strategy, targets, projected sales, costs, earnings, capital expenditures, debt levels and cash flows, and plans and objectives of management for future operations, are forward-looking statements. When used in this news release, words such as “may,” “will,” “expect,” “intend,” “estimate,” “anticipate,” “believe,” “should,” “project” or “plan” or the negative thereof or variations thereon or similar terminology are generally intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and are subject to risks, uncertainties, assumptions and other factors, some of which are beyond the Company’s control, which could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. These factors include cybersecurity risks and costs of defending against, mitigating and responding to data security threats and breaches impacting the Company; the Company’s ability to successfully identify, complete and integrate acquisitions and to realize the anticipated benefits associated with the same; and risks related to the Company’s ability to successfully execute on its strategic road map and meet its long-term financial goals; impacts of the conflict in Ukraine, including impacts on supply chains, logistics, input costs, capital markets and demand; and the negative impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic on global economies and the Company’s customers, suppliers and employees.
